

PT. ARTHUR

Inner Defenses Still Remain Unbroken

Report from Stoessel is Made Public

ISLANDERS LOSE 20,000 MEN

In Recent Assault on Besieged Fortress Which May Hold Out for Some Time.

Tokyo, Dec. 19.—Official reports from Port Arthur today state that the Russians have abandoned the battleships Peresviet, Poltava, Pobieda and Retvisan and the cruisers Palada and Bayan, which have been completely disabled by the Japanese.

Tokyo, Dec. 19.—The Japanese lost two torpedo boats during the operations against the battleship Sevastopol, which is reported in advices from Port Arthur to be completely disabled.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 19.—General Stoessel's latest dispatches from Port Arthur have been published, but as given out do not carry the story of the garrison's stubborn defense beyond Dec. 10, thus leaving a gap of at least five days between the official word of the military commander and the unofficial story of Commander Mizeneff which was given out at Chetoo.

The story of the operations at Port Arthur, as far as it has been given out, is intensely interesting, and shows that there has been an almost uninterrupted assault of the most desperate character from Nov. 20 to Dec. 10, when the Japanese, after losing over 22,000 men, captured 203-meter hill, and were able from that position to shell the squadron in the Port Arthur roadstead. There the official account ends, but it is explained that the Japanese do not occupy the top of the hill, which is still exposed to a deadly fire from the Russian artillery. The Japanese are using a plunging fire from very heavy guns from both sides and crest of hills, but that this is efficiently directed is shown by the damage suffered by the Russian squadron. The Japanese are credited with using 11-inch and 16-inch mortars and howitzers. The effect of these must be most deadly when turned upon the neighboring forts.

The public reception of General Stoessel's dispatches as a whole is not bad. Every voice is loud in praise of General Stoessel's defense of Port Arthur, while the authorities assert that the main line of forts has not yet been broken. The Japanese so far have used every device of engineering skill in making approaches, but with enormous sacrifices have been able to take only the outer defenses. It is declared the garrison probably will be able to hold out a considerable time yet.

Stoessel's Reports.
General Stoessel reports as follows: "I am happy to inform your majesty that on Nov. 20, after an increased bombardment, the Japanese attacked one of the forts on the northeastern front and leaped, with a portion of their forces, on the parapet. They were annihilated by rifle fire and the bayonet and thrown back into the trenches. Their reserves were scattered by shrapnel. From Nov. 21 to Nov. 23 the enemy violently bombarded the fort and, in spite of great losses, effected by their perseverance a passage between two forts on the northeastern front. At 5:30 o'clock in the evening of Nov. 23, after heavy firing, the Japanese suddenly hurled themselves against several works on this front and seized a portion of the trenches, but they were thrown back by the reserves after a fierce bayonet struggle. They returned to the assault after midnight and again occupied a part of the trenches, but were annihilated by our bayonets. At 2 o'clock in the morning all was over, and your majesty's heroic troops were able to rest and start repairing the damage caused by the bombardment. From the 20th to the 24th the Japanese lost more than 2,000 men. All of our troops behaved as heroes. Bombardment of the town and harbor continues daily. A number of buildings have been destroyed and the harbor has sustained some damage. The garrisons are in excellent spirits."

On Dec. 2 General Stoessel reports

as follows: "Twelve days' assault, which commenced on Nov. 20, was definitely repulsed last night. I am happy to say that your majesty's heroic troops alone could have been capable of doing this. There has never been such a fierce assault. The Japanese, according to prisoners and Chinese, lost at least 20,000 men."

On Dec. 5 General Stoessel reports: "At 7 o'clock yesterday morning the Japanese, having concentrated all their forces, began an assault of Visokaya hill, bombarding it simultaneously with 11-inch and 16-inch shells. A fierce fight raged all day. We repulsed three assaults. Toward evening the Japanese succeeded in obtaining possession of the crest of the hill and immediately got two machine guns into position thereon. Among the wounded are General Tserenstev (Continued on page 2, 6th col.)

MOSCOW RIOTING

Five Thousand Men Make a Demonstration.

WERE CHARGED BY COSSACKS

Many Wounded and Many Placed Under Arrest—Crowds are Dispersed.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 19.—(Bulletin)—Dispatches from Moscow today state that the casualties in the students anti-war demonstration yesterday were four persons killed and sixty injured. Three hundred students have been arrested.

Moscow, Dec. 19.—This city was the scene of a revolutionary demonstration, 5,000 people actually participating. Fortunately the agitators did not succeed in drawing the workingmen from the factories into the disturbance, and after many collisions, the police firing blank volleys and charging with their sabers, the crowds were finally dispersed. Many were wounded and more were arrested. As far as is known none of the rioters was killed. One policeman is reported to have been fatally injured. Many on both sides were roughly handled.

The authorities knew in advance that trouble was impending, and many houses along Tverskai street were specially guarded, and extra policemen were on duty in the streets. Several squadrons of mounted gendarmes were concealed in the courtyards of houses, ready for any emergency. The crowds began to collect in Tverskai street, students, young men and women mixing with the general public. The thoroughfare was soon congested with a mass of moving humanity, which converged on Strastnaya square, where 8,000 persons assembled, many armed with clubs and carrying flags. The crowd, singing, moved toward the palace of Grand Duke Sergius, the governor general of Moscow. The police attempted to block the street, whereupon the trouble began in earnest. The crowd broke through the cordon. Battalions of police were brought up at double quick to reinforce their comrades. Sticks and stones were freely used by the mob, which threatened to again break through the cordon. The police, under orders of their chief, fired several blank volleys, and mounted men charged, using the flats of their swords.

Many of the demonstrators who broke through the cordon of police paraded in side streets in smaller groups, waving flags and singing. A crowd of 500 collected in front of the theater, and revolutionary flags were hoisted amid shouts of "Long live freedom!" The police were not prepared at this point and the crowd, gathering volume, moved from the square to Neglina street and Kromnestki bridge, the chief street of Moscow, where the police met them. Another stubborn fight ensued, ending, as the first had done, with three blank volleys and saber charges. Many shops were turned into hospitals, where the wounds of both rioters and police were temporarily dressed.

WORK OF STORM

A Score of Ships High and Dry on Coast.

THE MOST VIOLENT IN YEARS

Belated Ocean Liners Report Heavy Weather During the Entire Passage.

New York, Dec. 19.—The blinding snowstorm which has raged along the Atlantic coast is responsible, it is believed, for a number of vessels running aground. When communication is restored it is believed many mishaps will be reported. At times the velocity of the wind reached 60 miles an hour and damage to all kinds of shipping is believed to be heaviest since the awful storm of 1898. Four men were killed and four seriously injured in the burning of the big Stanard company's barge No. 91, off New Jersey coast yesterday. The tug Stanard arrived in port this morning with the wounded men. The dead are: Captain G. P. Stokes, A. Salt, engineer; L. Brandt, fireman, and an unknown seaman. The fire was caused by a mysterious explosion.

New York, Dec. 19.—The Atlantic coast was visited by a furious gale and snowstorm, and reports from the New England and New Jersey coasts tell of a score or more of marine disasters. At Vineyard Haven over 15 schooners anchored in the harbor were blown ashore, and several others were damaged in collisions. Off the Bayhead (N. J.) lifesaving station the schooner Lizzie H. Drayton, bound from Providence for Baltimore, went ashore, the crew being rescued by the lifesaving crew. The Cunarder Umbria and the American liner St. Paul reported heavy weather and adverse gales during the whole passage. The Anchor line steamer Astoria, bound for Glasgow, went ashore in the lower bay, but later floated without injury and proceeded. In the river and harbor the traffic was for a while during the worst of the storm almost at a standstill.

So heavy was the snowfall that lights could not be seen on the river a boat's length ahead, and ferry boats and other craft proceeded at a diminished headway. In this city the snow fell almost without intermission until eight inches had fallen. There was little interruption of traffic, 13,000 shovellers and 4,000 teams being set to work as soon as the snow ceased falling to clean off the principal thoroughfares.

Ships Driven Ashore.
Woodshole, Mass., Dec. 19.—The tug Susie D. arrived from Vineyard Haven and reported that the storm drove 15 schooners, anchored in the harbor, on shore; while others were damaged through collisions. The damage was the heaviest since the November gale of 1898. As far as could be learned no lives were lost.

MANY ACCIDENTS

Thousands Were Killed or Injured in 1904.

TEN DISASTROUS WRECKS

Inter-State Commerce Commission Makes Report and Comments on the Causes.

Washington, Dec. 19.—The annual report of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, made public, shows that the past fiscal year was unusually prolific in fatal railroad accidents. There were 45,266 employees injured and 3,467 killed in 1904, as compared with 33,711 injured and 2,316 killed in 1902. The figures for 1903 are intermediate between those for 1902 and 1904. In 1904, there were 8,077 passengers injured, 321 killed; in 1902, 6,089 injured and 30 killed; in 1903, there were 6,973 injured and 321 killed. The increase in the number of deaths of passengers in train accidents in 1904, compared with 1903, is 64 1-2 per cent. The fact that there were ten usually disastrous accidents during the year is commented upon.

The report says that laxity of discipline, long hours, the employment of inexperienced men, overtaxing of facilities and the influence of labor unions are causes of numerous disasters. Government investigation is urged.

The commission urges the adoption of the block system and the use of airbrakes. The abuses of railroads shipping rates are cited and it is claimed that small shippers are affected to their detriment. Private cars and terminal railroads are owned by big shippers.

INJUNCTION

Against Bond Sale Has Been Dissolved.

RUMOR OF A PRIVATE SALE

Opinion of Attorneys is They Must Again be Advertised and Offered for Sale.

A rumor was circulated late Monday afternoon that the Newark water works bonds amounting to $200,000 had been sold at private sale.

This rumor was based upon the absence from the city on Monday afternoon of Mayor Crilly, Solicitor Phil B. Smythe and Auditor Maurath, coupled with the fact that the court on Saturday dissolved the injunction against the sale of these bonds.

The bond sale was advertised for Thursday noon, December 15, but by injunction the sale was stepped just as the bonds were about to be sold. Representatives of 38 bond firms were present to bid on the bonds.

The injunction was dissolved by the court here on Saturday, but this fact was not known to the press or the people generally until Monday afternoon. Here is the journal entry in the case.

In the case of the City of Newark, by Philip B. Smythe, etc., vs. the City of Newark, Ohio, et al., to enjoin the selling of the water works bonds, an entry has been furnished to the Clerk of Courts, approved by Philip B. Smythe, City Solicitor, and Frank A. Bolton, attorney for defendants, with the fact that the cause came on to be heard on the morning; that thereupon the plaintiff not desiring to plead further, it is considered by the court that defendants, and each of them, go hence without day, and recover from plaintiff their costs herein expended.

The entry was filed December 17. A prominent law firm told the Advocate at 3 p. m. that the bonds can't be sold at private sale until after they are offered at public sale and fail to sell for lack of bidders. Rumor had it that the officials were negotiating with the First National Bank of Columbus for the sale of the bonds.

The Advocate called Mr. Charles R. Shields of the First National bank by telephone. Mr. Shields said that he knew nothing of the proposed sale and after talking to President Mayer of the same bank he said that Mr. Mayer knew nothing of the proposition.

HUNTING LAKE

Only Matter of Time Till He is Caught.

MORE STORIES CROPPING OUT

Recently Gave a Dinner Costing $10 a Plate—Bonding Company is After Him.

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 19.—Theodore F. Lake, formerly of Newark, O., the missing Michigan manager of the Security Mutual Life Insurance company, together with his wife, 1-year-old son, and sick babe, is busily engaged at present in eluding the sleuths of the bonding company that indemnified his employers against loss. The Aetna Indemnity company states to the Advocate correspondent that it is the financial sponsor for Lake, but the local agents of the Aetna say that if such is the case they are not aware of it. This condition of affairs is explained by the fact that Lake arranged for his bond in New York city at the time he first went with the Security Mutual.

That Mrs. Lake and the children are with Lake is indicated by letters received here by William A. Gorby, capitalist of 39 Martin place, half brother of Mrs. Lake, and also by information received at the company's office here. It is believed the latter tip came from detectives who are pursuing Lake.

More stories of Lake's dealings in the last few days he was here are cropping out. It is alleged that he has a diamond ring which he offered to buy for his wife from one of his agents, but took first to see if she liked it. According to this story the agent doesn't know yet whether Mrs. Lake liked the ring or not. He valued the ring at $115, and considers himself out that much. Another story is that Agent Williams, who is an expert accountant as well as life insurance man, was asked by his fellow agents to go over Lake's books, and straighten them out, as the agents did not know where they were at on many of their accounts. Williams, it is said, undertook the task and found soon that Lake's affairs were badly muddled. He reported the state of affairs to the home office with the result that the investigation of Lake commenced. Before Williams finished his job of accounting, it is alleged, Lake "touched" him for a loan of $150. These stories are injuring Lake's reputation with his former staff more than his shortage. They can explain and forgive the latter on the ground that he was trying to fly high in his business sooner than returns warranted, but looked to a phenomenal business to make good for him.

Assistant General Manager A. B. Howe, of the Security Mutual, now in charge of Lake's life offices, says:

"While it is impossible at this time to make a correct statement of Lake's shortage, I am certain that it will reach at least $2,000, but not $3,000. W. K. Jacobs, one of the company's auditors, who has been assisting me in investigating Lake's affairs, has left for the home offices of the company in Binghamton, N. Y. He took with him all data we found and the exact extent of Lake's deficit will not be known until late next week, when the investigation will be closed."

"Our company will lose nothing. Lake was bonded and the company furnishing the bond will have to stand the loss. I think it is only a question of a comparatively short time before Lake is run down."

Mr. Howe will remain in charge of the office affairs here until next week. William A. Gorby, Mrs. Lake's half brother, said to the Advocate that:

"Lake has probably hit me harder than any other person or any concern in the city. He was a tactful, smooth and shrewd young man. He had everything in life before him, but he was wrong. Lake was married in 1892, I think. His record at the University of Michigan, where he studied law, was excellent. He made a phenomenal success as solicitor for the New York Life Insurance company during his residence of four years in New York city. He was referred to as 'Halt Million Dollar Lake' for the reason that he personally had written that much business in one year."

"Immediately after leaving the New York company Lake came to Detroit to take care of the Michigan interests of the company which it is claimed he has abandoned. He was armed with the highest recommendations of the company he had just left."

Lake was a victim of extravagance. He wanted the best of everything, he wanted the cost, and generally got it. He is paying the penalty."

Acquaintances of Lake say that he craved elaborate many course dinners. He liked to cut a dash. An idea of his extravagance may be gained from the following incident related by one of his intimate acquaintances.

"About a month or two before Lake left Detroit he gave a dinner to a party of ten and I know that it cost him not less than $100. The dinner was served at a hotel in the city and guests arrived in cabs and departed in cabs. He even paid the cab fare. It was a case where he had to pay each for everything."

Early in the fall Lake purchased at a big fur store in the city two fur-lined coats, one for himself and the other for his wife. They were very costly, but Lake obtained credit and has not yet paid the bill. Not only did he leave bills at big downtown stores but an uptown grocer has a bill of about $100 against him, and a hardware dealer is still waiting for $55 for stoves.

Believed to Have Millions in Her Reach.

HUSBAND SAILED FOR HOME

Stories of Uncanny Acts in Penitentiary Told by Woman Who Was Matron.

Cleveland, Dec. 19.—(Bulletin)—In the hearing today before Referee Remington in bankruptcy, proceedings brought against Mrs. Chadwick, Emil Hecow, the woman's son, and Fleta Swansh, her maid, testified. It was learned from the testimony that the trunks and valise supposed to contain jewels or valuable papers were sent from the Holland House, New York, to some "safe place," at the time Emil made a hurried trip to Cleveland. The place is unknown to the authorities. The hearing was to learn where the Chadwick securities, if any, are kept. Mrs. Chadwick is likely to testify Tuesday.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 19.—The disposition Mrs. Chadwick made of the vast sums she borrowed in the last dozen years has caused much comment, and although she is known to have been lavish in her expenditures, it is the belief among some of her friends that she had $1,000,000 or $2,000,000 hidden somewhere.

An interesting story regarding the parole from the penitentiary of Columbus of Mrs. Devere comes to light. Mrs. Flora Kissinger, matron in the penitentiary during Madame De Vere's incarceration, says that, while in the big prison, by dint of her telling of fortunes and uncanny ways, she held her fellow prisoners under such superstitious awe that they were more subservient to her commands than to those of the matron and even of the Warden.

She was allowed to have a crucible, in which, through the brewing of "witch's charms," she was enabled to still more prey upon the superstitious awe of the prisoners.

A woman who for many years was a leader in the most exclusive society of the city, told how Mrs. Chadwick tried to gain admittance to the "499" circle.

"Dr. Chadwick's first wife was aristocratic and refined, she said, but his second wife, Cassie, was impossible."

"She sought to dazzle persons with a display of costly dresses and magnificent jewels."

Cassie L. Chadwick looked up from a sick couch to hear the glad news that her husband had sailed from Europe en route home.

"He will straighten it all out," she said. "I knew he would come back, and when he reaches here some of the people who have caused me all this trouble will have to pay for their work."

New York, Dec. 19.—A cablegram from Genoa Switzerland, says that the wife of Alexander Dowie, of Zion church fame, has deserted him and denounces Zion as the home of hypocrisy and greed.

Mrs. Dowie was only recently married to young Gladstone, and her arrival in America was hailed as a noteworthy acquisition to the Dowie cult. Indeed, the impression was created in some quarters that she belonged to one of the most aristocratic families of Switzerland, and was immensely wealthy, and this impression the Dowie never took any pains to deny.

DEFENSE

Begins Testimony in Patterson Trial

Fair Defendant Will Go Upon the Stand

TEN WITNESSES ARE CALLED

Floradora Girl Dressed in Black as Usual Greeted Her Father Affectionately Monday.

New York, Dec. 19.—Nan Patterson will go on the witness stand and tell the story of her relations with Caesar Young and all the circumstances which led up to the bookmaker's death. Ten witnesses have been subpoenaed by the defense and they will be called to the stand today to refute the prosecution's case. Counsel said today that she might go on the stand this afternoon. Miss Patterson came into court dressed in her deep, black dress. She greeted her father affectionately.

Miss Ida Townsend, the first witness for the defense said she was formerly employed as a telephone clerk at the St. Paul Hotel. She worked there last June. She said she knew Miss Patterson as an occupant at the hotel. "I saw the defendant at 7:30 in the evening of June 3," said the witness.

"Do you keep a record of messages received at the hotel?"

"No. Only of the outgoing messages."

"What did the defendant say to you?"

"That she expected a message from Caesar Young, and if he called to tell him she would be at Healey's."

"Was there a message?"

"Yes."

"What was the message?"

"I object. If this witness can say that she knows the message was from Caesar Young, I have no objection," said Prosecutor Rand.

Objection was overruled and the witness said that a man's voice said: "This is Mr. Young," and that she told Young that Miss Patterson would meet him at Healey's. Miss Townsend said that later Miss Patterson returned to the hotel and she gave her Young's message. Miss Townsend was excused.

At this point the Earl of Suffolk was ushered quietly into the court and was invited to sit at the bench. He took a deep interest in the proceedings. An immense crowd is present today.

Edward Grossman, a cigar dealer, said he heard Young making an engagement with Miss Patterson, by phone. Milton W. Hazelton, Oneonta, N. Y., told of seeing the man and woman in a cab on the morning of June 4. He said the couple were holding each other's hands. The woman dropped his hand, there was a red flame and he dropped over with the revolver in his hand. Prosecutor Rand tried to shake his testimony but without avail.

SCHOOL BOARD

WILL DISCUSS PROPOSITION TO BUILD SCHOOL HOUSE.

Architects Are Expected to Submit Plans For New Woodside Building Tonight.

The meeting of the board of education tonight will be principally devoted to a discussion of plans for the new Woodside addition, which are expected to be submitted by Architects Mills of Columbus, and Airbaugh of Newark.

At the November election the board was authorized to issue $25,000 of bonds for the erection of this building, but the members are inclined to go slowly in accepting any plans. Especially is this true as regards the system of heating to be adopted, and this matter will be thoroughly discussed before final action is taken. Various systems are recommended but whether in practical use, anyone will do what is claimed for it, is a question.

In the new West Newark building for instance, the hot water system was installed upon the recommendation of many persons but it has proven almost an absolute failure. During the cold days, school has several times had to be dismissed as the rooms were too cold for the pupils. On Saturday the board bought four new gas stoves and will use them until the hot water system gets to working perfectly, if it ever does.

The $25,000 bonds will not be issued until after the plans are adopted, as the advertising for the sale of bonds and for the bids on the contract can be done concurrently. Work on the new building will begin in the early spring, as soon as the weather permits.

I tried many remedies without relief, but finally Hamlin's Wizard Oil made a perfect cure, and he can now walk and run. We thought we should have to amputate both his legs, and feel that Hamlin's Wizard Oil saved his life." Price 50c and $1.00.

MERCHANT POTTER

Shot and Killed Attorney Smithson—Tragedy Growing Out of a Lawsuit.

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 19.—At Woodbury, Cannon county, Thomas Potter, a prominent merchant, shot and instantly killed A. J. Smithson, an attorney. The tragedy grew out of a sensational lawsuit in which Potter's testimony on the witness stand was adverse to Smithson's interest. A young lady who was accompanied by Potter was accosted on the street by Smithson, who is said to have remarked she should not keep company with a man who would swear falsely. The men met later, a quarrel ensued and Smithson was killed.

Board of Commerce.

Columbus, O., Dec. 19.—The state board of commerce elected the following: President, Nat. Henchman Davis of Cincinnati; vice president, Amos B. McNamary of Cleveland; treasurer, C. D. Firestone of Columbus; secretary, Gilbert H. Stewart, Jr., of Columbus; commissioner, Allen R. Foote of Columbus; general counsel, Gilbert H. Stewart of Columbus; assistant general counsel, Francis B. James of Cincinnati. The Willis law taxing the capital stock of corporations was condemned as unjust.

Mrs. Chadwick Improving.

Cleveland, Dec. 19.—Mrs. Chadwick was visited by Dr. Wall, the jail physician. He said she was still very weak and nervous, but was improving. The only other persons summoned in the bankruptcy hearing and to give any information they may have of property owned by Mrs. Chadwick are Emil Hoover, Mrs. Chadwick's son, and her nurse, Freda Swanstrom. Receiver Loesser said that he did not expect any witnesses would be called for the present. He has arranged to insure for $50,000 the Chadwick property he has in his possession.

OIL EXCITEMENT IN FIELD OF SPORT

Is By No Means Abating at Bladensburg.

Information received at the office of the chief game and fish warden is to the effect that the open winter prevailing up to this week has been of inestimable benefit to the quail. It is evident that nothing like the usual number of birds have been killed during the season that has just closed.

President Rodgers, speaking on the subject, said: "The dry and open winter so far has done more to preserve the quail in Ohio than a dozen game laws. But few have been killed. On account of the dry weather it was simply impossible for the dogs to find them and the result has been that some of the best dogs have been unable to locate the birds at all. Hunters have been compelled to fairly kick them out of fields of stubble, the dogs hunting right over them. If the present conditions continue there will be more quail in Ohio next fall than for years."

A movement is on foot to bring 25 dozen quail to Ohio for the purpose of propagation in certain parts of the state. Under the game laws of the states, Mississippi and North Carolina are the only states from which quail can be exported alive even for propagation.

WELLS NOW BEING DRILLED

It Is Probable the Field Will Have Railway Connection in the Near Future.

The excitement over the development of the Bladensburg oil field is not abating. The McKee well the first and only one yet completed is good for at least 75 barrels per day, and many say twice that capacity, although tests have not been made public. The Blystone well is down about 2400 feet and the presence of salt water is making the drilling somewhat difficult. The Hall well, the last commenced, is down about 700 feet. If these two come in good, the Bladensburg boom is assured. Oil was reached in the McKee well at a depth of 2800 feet and it is thought the same depth must be reached before oil is obtained in either of the other two wells.

Notwithstanding the uncertainty of oil developments there are interested parties who are sizing up the situation as to the future railroad facilities. It is reported that the C. A. & C. Railroad company has promised to run a spur from somewhere near Gambier to the village, provided a half dozen good oil wells are found. This line would run through what is now considered the best portion of the oil field. There is also a project in view to run a trolley line from Mt. Vernon through Gambier to the village and extend to Zanesville, possibly connecting with the Columbus, Newark & Zanesville line, near Hanover. There are others who think the Wooster line to Columbus could be easily induced to pass through the village.

TEN ARE DEAD

From the Effects of Wood Alcohol—All the Victims Being Paint-ville, Ky., Men.

Ashland, Ky., Dec. 19.—(Bulletin).—As a result of drinking wood alcohol Friday night near here, ten river boatmen are now dead. Two are lying and three are missing. Six died Saturday and the others since then. The men were chilled after the sinking of the boats and drank the liquid to warm themselves.

Prestonsburg, Ky., Dec. 19.—Captain Spriggs, Shade Daniels, Harrison Spencer, Curt Adams, Sam Harmon and Winfield Daniel of the crew of the pushboat which left Prestonsburg are dead at the mouth of Beaver creek from the effects of drinking wood alcohol, while John Goble, Ike Dorsett and Tom Salmon lie at death's door from the same cause. The boat left Prestonsburg, the present terminus of the Big Sandy railway, with a cargo of general freight for Pikeville. Among the cargo was a can of wood alcohol. The can was opened and the victims drank the contents. When the men sat down to supper all became violently sick. Not one of the crew being able to go for medical assistance, six of those who had partaken of the poison were dead within an hour. All were residents of Paintsville.

SPECKS BEFORE THE EYES.

Seeing Things In The Day Time.

There are Thousands of Persons Afflicted This Way. Ninety - Nine Times Out of One Hundred It Is Caused by Either the Liver, Stomach, Bowels or Digestive Organs.

In no part of the body are the effects of constipation more quickly noticed than in the condition of the eyes. They quickly respond to the poisonous elements which are absorbed into the blood in chronic cases of liver torpidity and sluggish bowel action. When you see a yellowish tinge in the whites of the eyes it shows quickly the biliousness which pervades the whole system; but it is the specks and flitting objects in the vision itself that are even more quickly apparent. Thousands of people see things in the daytime; their vision is dimmed, spots come between them and other objects which seem quite intangible, almost imaginary, and as they turn their heads they vanish as with a flash. Such conditions can always be traced to a torpid liver and a congested condition of the bowels, yet can always be cured by the well-advised use of Smith's Pepsine and Butternut Pills, which cure constipation as if by magic. They regulate the functions of the liver, cleanse the poisons from the blood, remove the bilious elements from the circulation and strengthen the nerves. If your eyes are clouded without an appreciable cause, if you have specks and flitting objects before your vision, use Smith's Pepsine and Butternut Pills and get the poisonous elements out of your blood. Remember they always cure sick headache, constipation and biliousness in one night. 25 cents, all dealers.

Japs Driven Off.

Huangshan, Dec. 19.—A correspondent who went over all the front positions of the Russian army from Poutloff (Lone Tree) hill to Erdagon on Dec. 15 reports everything quiet except that midway between Poutloff hill and Simintin the Japanese were observed trying to extend their front works and entrenchments on Double Hump hill. The artillery of Poutloff hill and Erdagon opened up on the Japanese and forced them to quit work and seek shelter. There have been few cases of frost bite despite the low temperature.

Japanese Fleet Sails.

London, Dec. 19.—A report from Chefoo that a portion of the Japanese fleet has left for Singapore and that a number of Japanese merchantmen have been lightly armed to maintain the blockade of Port Arthur is published in a Chefoo dispatch to the Daily Telegraph. Official reports from Tokyo state that the Russians at Port Arthur have abandoned the battleships Peresviet, Poltava, Pobieda and Retvizan and the cruisers Pallada and Bayan.

The Russians Prepare a Moat at Port Arthur Fortress Filling It With Oil.

London, Dec. 19.—According to the Daily Telegraph's Chefoo messenger from the Japanese lines at Port Arthur the Russians had prepared around the fort at Panlung a moat 600 yards long and 30 feet wide, which they filled with petroleum to a depth of several feet, then covered with wood and straw. In the course of an attack upon the fort early in December the Japanese storming party sank into this morass, which the Russians fired with an electric fuse. The fierce conflagration lasted all night and day, and hundreds of Japanese were burned to death, but the second night, the trench having dried up, the Japanese advanced in small detachments protected by large wooden shields and engaged in a savage bayonet fight. The Japanese, the report continues, captured the position and made prisoners of 152 Russians.

Food and Fuel Scarce.

Fusan, Dec. 19.—There is a probability that there will be a shortage of fuel and food among the Chinese this winter. Firewood is quoted at $40 per ton and food is selling at three times its normal value, with the end of the supply in sight. The Japanese are paying Chinese laborers treble their ordinary wages and also are paying market prices for all the fuel and supplies they purchase. The cold weather continues. The military situation is unchanged.

Third Pacific Squadron.

Libau, Dec. 19.—Work is being hurried upon the vessels of the prospective third Pacific squadron. All of the ships are being overhauled in preparation for a long voyage. At present there is a shortage of workmen, but this, it is expected, will soon be remedied.

Strange Domestic Tragedy Revealed by Aged Widow's Suit at Bellefontaine.

Bellefontaine, O., Dec. 19. — A domestic tragedy of unnatural reality was revealed in common pleas court in the trial of Catherine Miller vs. Ellen Landis.

Catherine Miller is the widow of John Miller and is suing for her dower right in a farm which her late husband sold to Ellen Landis without her consent.

The Millers moved to the neighborhood of Santa Fe, in Logan county, from Licking county, Ohio, during the war. With them came a housekeeper, and in time, so the testimony showed, Mr. Miller became fonder of the housekeeper than of his wife and finally put his wife away from him and their children and installed her in a little house on a corner of the farm, while Miller and the housekeeper, who is also deceased, lived in the family home and reared a family of their own. Miller sold a part of his land to Ellen Landis and it is alleged that the housekeeper signed the deed as the wife of Miller. Now the legal Mrs. Miller is asking for her dower right in that land which was sold without her knowledge.

During the years that elapsed while Mrs. Miller was compelled to live away from her home, husband and children, her little ones were growing to maturity and the father and the housekeeper were teaching the children to call Mrs. Miller "auntie." Mrs. Miller is now past eighty years of age and quite feeble and her story told in court created quite an interest because of complexity and unnaturalness. The case is taken under consideration by the court for future decision.

In the evening there was a great meeting at St. Paul's riding school, where Habert formally resumed direction of the League of Patriots. The meeting resolved on a Patriote. The average of thirteen estimates of the cotton crop for 1904, all from men and firms of high standing as economists, is 13,333,059, which is 281,700 bales above the final returns for the crop of 1903. The total value of last year's cotton crop was more than $600,000,000. The receipts from the cotton crop go into the hands of the cotton planters, where they tend powerfully to promote the industrial development of the South. It explains the industrial progress of the South. Six hundred millions of dollars in a lump sum equips the South with the money machinery for new enterprises and widespread prosperity.

Judge Parker, the late Democratic candidate for President, although badly beaten at the polls, is not without honor in his own State and city. Arrangements are perfecting in the metropolis for a dinner to be given by the lawyers of the city to the late chief justice in welcoming him back to the ranks of the profession, and it is predicted that it will be a remarkable tribute to Judge Parker. The leading lawyers of both political parties are active in the movement, and the speakers include ex-Secretary Root, ex-Governor Black and Mr. Hornblower. Chief Justice Cullen, Judge Parker's successor, will attend.

PARTISAN COURT

PROPOSES TO DEFEAT WILL OF THE PEOPLE.

Colorado Court Throws Out Whole Precincts to Prevent Seating of Governor-Elect Adams.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 19.—Chief Justice Gabbert Saturday announced the decision of the supreme court to throw out the entire vote of three precincts of Ward Five and one precinct of Ward Seven at the late election on the ground that gross frauds were committed in direct violation of the injunction served upon the election officials. The decision does not affect the votes for President and congressmen.

Through the action of the court in excluding five precincts from the abstract of returns to date, Republicans will secure a solid delegation in the legislature from the city and county of Denver, and will obtain control of both branches of the legislature which canvasses the vote for state officers.

On the face of returns Alva Adams, Democratic candidate for governor, had a plurality of about 11,000, but the Republican managers assert that when all fraudulent votes are eliminated Governor Peabody will have a plurality and will be reelected.

The precincts that have been excluded from the count by the supreme court returned 1,455 Democratic votes and 275 Republican.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 19.—An expedition provided by Indiana University will be sent to Spain next year to observe the total solar eclipse of the sun, which occurred on August 30. They will have a horizontal telescope 75 feet long, providing an aperture of eight inches. Thus, with one

A FIERCE FIGHT

TOOK PLACE SUNDAY LEAVING IN HUNGARIAN COLONY

Several Arrests Made After Hatchets Had Been Freely Used on Men's Heads.

A fierce fight took place Saturday in the Hungarian colony at 57 Railroad street, between First and Second, on Sunday evening, which resulted in four arrests being made. It is difficult to get at the cause of the trouble and the names of those involved in the fight are unpronounceable and unintelligible. A fifth participant escaped.

It is learned that after the trouble started there were three against two and the two got all the worst of it, as they were each held by one man while the third used a hatchet on their heads with telling effect. When the four were arrested two were covered with blood and Dr. Yowell was called to attend their injuries. He sewed up several gashes in their heads, and otherwise treated them.

In police court Monday morning the two men who were wounded were fined $1 and costs while the other pair were fined $10 and costs each. Officers Howard, Hager and Scott made the arrests.

Barney Rankin was arrested for stealing an overcoat from the Union House, belonging to Thomas J. Bates. The case was continued until 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, Rankin being put under a $50 bond which he failed to give.

Reply to "M. R. S."

(Communicated.)

I notice in your Saturday's issue, a very labored attempt on the part of one signing himself "M. R. S.", to reply to my communication which appeared in your issue of Wednesday last.

As the writer admits that our "promises are correct, and our logic sound and unanswerable." I do not see why he should stultify himself by rushing into print, and saying many things entirely foreign to the point at issue. The only thought I could find in his farfetched attempt by way of a reply was, that I did not substantiate my position on one point by not "giving the names of those whose health had been seriously impaired by too close application to study."

Well, while it is not incumbent on proper for me to give persons names, I would refer the writer to the fact, that he need only use his own eyes, and see the physical condition of many of our school children, "who are suffering not only from nervousness, but also from physical as well as mental exhaustion, as well as defective eyesight caused by studying at night as well as too close application to study during the day."

Probably if "M. R. S." were a physician, and could see these things as I see them he would change his views very materially on this subject.

However as there are "none so blind as those who will not see." I do not propose to waste valuable time in trying to remove the scales from his somewhat blurred vision. "Ephraim is joined to his idols—let him alone."

My article was at the instance of several of the leading parents of our city, who informed the writer that their children were studying too hard, and were suffering from overwork in school, and felt that the time was opportune, when something should be done to bring about a reform in this regard. As no one seemed willing to take the necessary steps towards "pulling the chestnuts out of the fire," I volunteered to act in that capacity somewhat reluctantly. As stated in the first part of my reply, as "M. R. S." admitted all that I claimed in the premises, I see no reason why I should waste any more time, or paper on this subject.

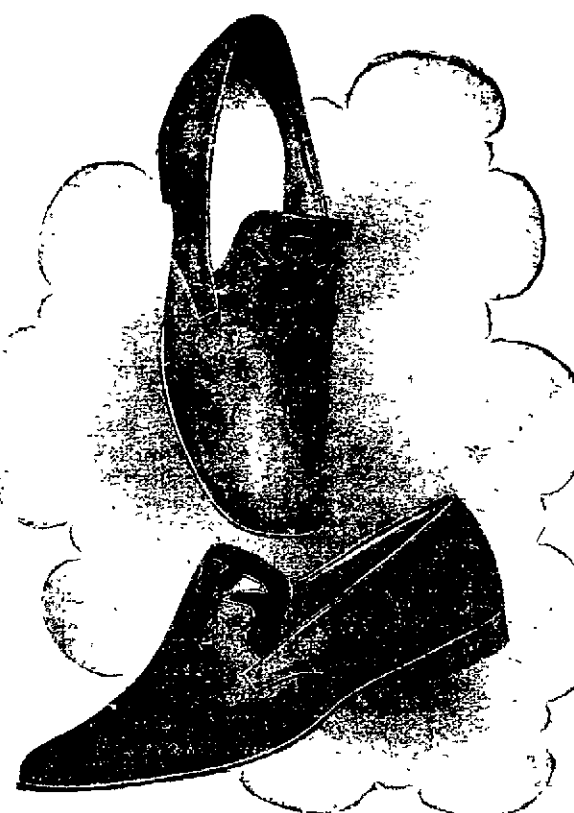

The attempted thrusts of this "modern reviewer," as will be seen have been effectually passed. They have fallen far short of the mark, and he has been "hoisted on his own pretard."

In his case the expression is most certainly applicable to his forced attempt at a reply—Lo and behold—"The mountain went into labour and brought forth a mouse!" "ALUMNUS."

A FINE ADDRESS

Was That Given Sunday Afternoon at Taylor Hall By Dr. Lathrop of Granville.

It would be difficult to say which of the three addresses that have been given by Dr. Lathrop of Granville at the Sunday afternoon meetings in Taylor Hall was the strongest. They have each been unique, and each preeminently practical.

The address Sunday on "Broken Trusts and Serious Trifling" was probably the most impressive. Men were deeply moved. A very strong spiritual feeling pervaded the entire audience, and when during the closing song Dr. Lathrop asked the Christians to stand and others who desired to begin the Christian life to stand with them, a number of young men arose.

The great responsibility of life it self, the sacredness of time, the necessity not only for a man to keep his word but to have a definite purpose in life, the remorse which follows neglected opportunity—these were some of the thoughts which the Doctor in his forceful manner presented. The Men's chorus sang two selections and Mr. Ned Marshall sang most effectively "The Dawn of Redemption."

Next Sunday Dr. Lathrop closes the present series by an address to young people. The service is to be open to ladies as well as to gentlemen.

A specially fine program is being arranged and will be published later in the week.

SAUM WILL LIVE

DOCTOR BARNES PRONOUNCES IT A REMARKABLE CASE.

Patient Is Getting Stronger Daily and Pain In His Head Is Now Subsiding.

Dr. D. F. Barnes said Monday morning that Andrew Saum, the Lancaster man, who is suffering with a fractured skull, and who refused to submit to an operation, will get well.

Mr. Saum is perfectly rational and each day his general condition improves. Until the last day or two he has been suffering great pain, but this has now subsided to a great extent. He has very little appetite but even this at present is better than the first few days. Dr. Barnes said that the crisis in Saum's case is now past. He considers it a most remarkable case and will, if the patient recovers, report it to one of the big medical journals. The man sustained a depressed fracture of the frontal bone, over four inches in length. The doctor said, however, that should he recover, he might be suited to his, but this result would not necessarily follow and the man may from present indications, make a complete recovery.

It will be remembered that Mr. Saum was struck upon the head by a plank which fell 60 feet from the water tower at the Heisey glass factory. Three doctors declared that an operation was necessary but Mr. Saum said he would die before submitting to the operation.

GRANVILLE "DRY"

By Overwhelming Vote of 298 to 46

THE STUDENTS CELEBRATE

Church Bells Ring and People of the Town Rejoice—No Talk of Contesting Result.

Granville, O., Dec. 18.—The election held here on Saturday on the proposition to permit or prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors in the village as a beverage, resulted in an overwhelming victory for the "drys." The vote cast was as follows.

In favor of the prohibition of the liquor traffic, 298.

Against the prohibition of the liquor traffic, 46.

Practically the entire vote of the village was cast at this election which resulted in a most emphatic protest against the sale of intoxicating liquors by nearly seven to one.

When the result was announced in the evening after the vote had been counted, the church bells were rung and at the services in the various churches on Sunday, the result was feelingly alluded to by the pastors, and rejoicing has been held throughout the village ever since.

Special interest was taken in prohibiting the liquor traffic in the village on account of the presence of so many young men—students of Denison University. All the members of the faculty of Denison University, the pastors of the church, and Mr. John Sample and the ladies of the village took special interest in the cause of the "dry" element in the contest, which was so abundantly victorious.

A question was raised Saturday as to the legality of the wording of the ballot but prominent lawyers were consulted at Newark and they gave an opinion that the ballot was legal. The talk of contesting the election in view of the one-sided result, has entirely subsided.

HEARST TO RETIRE

From Official Life as Soon as His Term Expires.

New York, Dec. 19.—Representative William R. Hearst said when asked concerned the published report that he was a candidate for mayor of New York:

"I am not a candidate for mayor of New York nor for president of the United States nor for any other office. I intend to serve my term as congressman and then retire, not from politics, but from office holding. I will retire because I think my political work will be less subject to misrepresentation and consequently more effective, if I am not myself a candidate for any office whatever."

NITROGLYCERIN

Exploded When Baler Was Put Into the Gas Well Near Martinsburg.

A strange accident happened at the Hancock well, near Martinsburg, Friday evening. The hole had gone crooked and a torpedo man was called to straighten it. Contractor Pearsall, who is drilling the well for the Ohio Fuel Supply company, argued that the charge of nitroglycerin had not been exploded, but the "shooter" claimed that it had. Later when an attempt was made to put the baler down it was found that Pearsall's claim was right, as the charge went off and cleared the well. Fortunately no one was hurt. —Mt. GRANVILLE NEWS

Granville, O., Dec. 19.—On Saturday afternoon Miss Blinn and Miss Benedict of the Conservatory of Music of Denison University, gave a reception to a large number of friends in the Conservatory parlors in honor of Mrs. Arthur L. Jedson. Tea and chocolate were poured during the afternoon by Misses Churchill, McKibben, Ferguson and Nichols. The rooms were artistically and prettily decorated and the reception was a most enjoyable one.

Frank Amos of Cambridge and William Wickenden of Toledo, have been the guests of their Sigma Chi brothers for several days.

Miss Bess Downer of Vassar college is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Downer.

William Meek, a young farmer residing on Loudon street, had the misfortune to meet with a very serious accident on Saturday. While engaged in feeding a corn shredder he attempted to remove an ear of corn that had fallen near the roller, and his hand was gripped and drawn in. Fortunately an automatic spring stopped the machine or he would have lost his arm. As it was two of the fingers were so badly mangled as to render operation necessary.

Work is rapidly progressing on the college sewer. The contractor, who is pushing the work, has had enough questions asked him to fill a query book, and enough advice to start a library.

Miss Olive Bruno, of Bucyrus, made a short visit here with friends the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Burton Case has returned home, after a visit with friends in Chicago.

The fiftieth birthday anniversary of Mrs. Rebecca Williams was celebrated with a family reunion at her home, two miles east of Granville on Friday. The occasion was much enjoyed, and also the excellent dinner

METHODIST CHURCH

Of Granville Celebrated 20th Anniversary of Building the Church Sunday—Good Program.

Granville, O., Dec. 19.—The twentieth anniversary of the building of the Methodist Episcopal church in Granville, together with the centenary of that church, was appropriately celebrated at the church on Sunday with a special program of exercises in the morning and evening.

The principal feature of the morning celebration was an address prepared and read by the venerable John M. Montgomery, who was chairman of the original building committee of the church, upon the subject of "Methodism and the Methodist Church in Granville." The paper contained a succinct yet comprehensive presentation of the subject.

The special feature of the evening's program was an address by the presiding elder, Dr. A. H. Norcross, upon the subject, "A Century of Methodism," in connection with which he gave a brief biography of John Wesley. The address was exceedingly interesting and valuable.

The exercises were interspersed throughout with a select program of music, and the church was packed.

A NEWARK MAN

SAID TO HAVE BEEN HELD UP AT COLUMBUS.

Watchman E. L. Clark Arrested For Burglary and Tossell Accused of Highway Robbery.

Columbus, O., Dec. 10.—Edward Clark employed as a private watchman for a number of East Side firms, and Lou Tittell, a painter, have been arrested and will be charged with numerous burglaries and a highway robbery.

Some days ago a report was received at police headquarters that Scott Wehe a resident of Newark, had been held up at Hildreth and Seventeenth streets by a man wearing a police uniform who attempted to rob him.

An effort was made at the time to get the number of the badge worn by the supposed officer, but it was some time before the police secured a clew as to the owner of the police outfit.

According to admissions made by Clark to the police he was feeling bad on the night in question and said he gave Tittell his uniform to wear, to help him out. In addition to the highway robbery charge above referred to, the men will also be charged with burglarizing the saloons of John W. Culver, 247 North Twentieth street, and Richard Bengt, of 157 Mt. Vernon avenue.

A quantity of stuff alleged to have been taken was found by the police in Clark's possession. Clark admits that he had done wrong, but denies that he had anything to do with the Wehe holdup, blaming that upon Tittell.
